The gasoline schooner "Trapp" tied up at Galiano wharf last Monday and had the misfortune to break away, drifting on to the rocks in front of Mr. Elverson's house. She was hauled off and taken into Whaler's Bay where repairs were made by salvage men from Vancouver and Mr. York. Peters, E. Lumsley, J. Peters, S. Wagg and R. Hepburn. L. Peters and Wagg divided the local teams' four baskets between them. MISS NINA V. PORTER

To Give Recital at Institute Hall

(Review Correspondent.)
SOUTH SALT SPRING ISLAND, Jan. 24.—On Wednesday evening, Feb. 8, Miss Nina V. Porter, of Vancouver, will give a recital in the Institute Hall under the auspices of the Women's Institute. The recital will be interspersed by musical numbers by local artists, consisting of songs, etc. The South Salt Spring Orchestra will also give selections.
The Vancouver press has the following to say regarding Miss Porter: "Miss Porter in a most charming manner presented her selections with insight and clever interpretation. Special mention can not be made of the fine selection of readings made by Miss Porter, Vancouver. She is proud of this young artist for her work ranks with that of many high and professional in Eastern cities."

Crew Had a Narrow Escape

(Review Correspondent.)
GALIANO ISLAND, Jan. 24.—The high winds early last week were responsible for a change in the boat service on Tuesday. The Otter was unable to make a call, but the "Trapp," a gasoline freighter, came in for shelter, which she did not find. She tied up to the wharf with her decks awash, but broke away and piled up on the rocks opposite Mr. Elverson's house. The crew was rescued, but the cargo, consisting of an assortment of baled straw, cement bricks, bulk tea, flour, bacon, etc., which was destined for Courteney, was a total loss. The "Helac," Capt. Bisset, of Vancouver, rendered assistance and the "Trapp" was floated off and taken to Whaler's Bay, where temporary repairs were effected, and she was taken to Vancouver on Monday.
In spite of the wind and sea in the early hours of Tuesday the weather was calm enough by noon for Mr. D. A. New to pull across in a fourteen-foot skiff to Ganges, where he spent a few days canvassing the local chicken men in connection with the installation of lighting systems. This type of lamp is interesting in that it operates on exactly the same principle as the lighthouses at Point Comfort, Prevost and other similar lights. Mr. New returned on Friday morning after a fair trip and a head tide.
Passengers on the Charmer last week included Mr. M. Enke, Mr. S. Page and Mr. O. New.
Mr. Abbot held a service at Revere Cove last Sunday which was well attended. There was also the usual service held by Canon Paddon at the South end.
The colds which are so prevalent have claimed a fair proportion of victims here. Mr. G. Head having been laid up for some time, also Mr. N. Cook and Mr. O. New are temporarily incapacitated. It pays to take no chances this time of the year and to remember that the thawing out of the water pipes is not a sign of the coming summer.
Logging operations start this week and Mr. A. Georgeson and Mr. Drummond are busy cutting cedar logs which the teams of Messrs. Cook and New have to haul down to the water. The boom is to be ready by Feb. 10, so no time is to be lost. It is hoped the weather will keep fine.
Mr. Drysdale spent most of last week on the island shooting horses and doing other blacksmithing. John He returned to Mayne on Monday afternoon by launch.
Dr. McDonald, the cow tester, has been around hunting in vain for "tractors" among the cows on the island. He reminds us of the old adage, "what is it that a woman looks for and hopes she won't find?" The answer is "holes in stockings" but Mr. McDonald hunts for tubercular cows. May be have many a vain search on Galiano.

Friday and Saturday special—Edie Velnor Shampoo, especially recommended for falling hair, 25c. Leauge, the druggist.

The following members were appointed delegates to the Farmers' Institute convention held in Victoria Jan. 20: W. D. Mitchell, C. B. McCarthy, T. F. Gold, H. Lawrie.

Bachelors Proved Good Entertainers

The Sidney Social Club was entertained with a military 500 drive last Tuesday evening, the bachelor members being the hosts. Nine tables were occupied in the contest, with "Doc" Blossom as the chief attraction at Table No. 1 with an extra joker in his pocket, which gained his table the honor of carrying off the booby prize, his companions in distress being Mr. A. L. Wilson, Mrs. H. Shada and Mrs. A. McKay. "Doc" in his usual generous manner, gave a flag to every person who came to play at his table, his motto being "more blessed to give than to receive." The winners of first prizes were Mrs. Woodward, Mrs. A. Critchley, Mr. M. McClure and Mr. Philip Heathcote.
Mr. Geo. McLean carried off the highest bid prize, making ten no trumps twice during the evening.
At the close of the game the surprise of the evening came for the fair sex. Covers had been laid for forty guests, and the delicious buttered biscuits, with cheese soufflé and onion salad served in a dainty manner won comments from all present.
Mr. Walter Crossley, the head waiter, arrayed in a Jersey cloth costume of blue and gold, made quite a hit, and was complimented on the beverage he served up. Mr. Geo. Dickson and his helpers are to be congratulated on this entertainment, and whether it was the runner that the committee had bought up all the cheese or whether they got a whiff of the cooking, they are responsible for the largest crowd yet at the card parties.
Next Tuesday, Mrs. McKay, Mrs. Leauge, Mr. Teater and Mr. Hill will have charge of the arrangements.

We understand that our fellow-townsmen Albert Spotts is advancing his date in order to be in line with the others and join in one grand Oriental celebration.

RECEIVES OFFER TO SHINE IN OPERA.

VANCOUVER, Jan. 26.—Sidney Mellon, wounded overseas man who has been eking out a precarious living addressing envelopes and doing other clerical jobs for months, has attracted the notice of operatic promoters by his rich tenor voice, and leaves this week for Chicago, where he will undergo training at the expense of a well known impresario.

REVELATIONS BARE DREADFUL DOPE CONDITIONS

VANCOUVER, Jan. 26.—Latest investigations instituted by The Vancouver Daily World reveal appalling conditions in the dope evil thruout the larger places of B. C. A young woman of culture and accomplishment, missing for weeks, has been discovered in squalid filth and disease in a cabin of the Oriental quarters. A resort catering to Orientals, with white inmates, conducted, it is said, by Europeans, has been the clearing house of drugs for months, says the report. Girls are in a condition of practical slavery, says one report. Dope has been sold to boys and girls, even high school students being lured into the habit, while one mother has submitted revolting conditions in which her young daughter and several other girls have become hardened drug addicts. The probe includes the doings of certain taxi-drivers. Victims found in the resorts are of repulsive appearance, and investigations sow unbelievable degeneracy in places.

U. S. "WET" ALDERMEN POINT TO B. C. LAWS

CHICAGO, Jan. 26.—"America's only salvation for restoration of safe and sane liquor laws of liberty for the people lie in following the plan that works so well in British Columbia, Canada, just across the line from Seattle and Montana." This forms the gist of a resolution presented by the aldermen of Chicago in their fight to establish laws permitting sale of wine and beer.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 26.—"When the sensible people of the United States get a reasonable law like they have in British Columbia, then will Americans get back their national liberty and be freed from the tyranny of reformers who have tried out a dismally inadequate measure and failed. Government control works well with the common-sense majority people there." This is the sentiment expressed by the new Liberty League that is trying to enact wine and beer laws.

B. C. MANUFACTURERS WOULD EDUCATE PEOPLE

VANCOUVER, Jan. 26.—B. C. manufacturers are planning to conduct a province-wide campaign of "education, showing the merits of buying products made in the home province." This movement, which is under the support of the Board of Trade, has had its inception by a press bureau of Vancouver, upon the showing that the interior editors' interest should be stimulated and their papers supported. The result is expected to be advertising of province-made products in the weeklies and bi-weeklies, and general propaganda tending to show just how the consumers may benefit by patronizing "made in B. C." commodities instead of patronizing mail order concerns.

SALVATIONISTS GRILL USE OF MAKE-UP FOR GIRLS

VANCOUVER, Jan. 26.—The views of Miss Evangeline Booth have been given out by local Salvationists on the matter of face powder, lip sticks and abbreviated skirts. Their leader is quoted as saying: "Woman has no right to try to fool the world; if she 'makes up' her face with artificial aids, she cannot expect to keep the love of her husband. He is disillusioned and that is the end of his love. It is shameful to see our young girls painted like cart wheels and powdered like clowns. Nature gives the natural bloom of health to women; if they will adhere to nature's own laws. God never intended the use of rouge, lip-sticks or powder as aids to winning pure love."

WIDOW IS ON "EASY STREET" WITH GOAT FARM

NEW WESTMINSTER, Jan. 26.—Mrs. Mary McGarth, widow with several small children, eked out a slender living for months with poultry and washing, but now she is prospering with a goat farm. Her goat milk is finding favor and she raises the animals for sale. Her goat butter has a ready sale. The goats cost little to keep, but thrive on almost any diet in sight or reach. Her own group of "kids" take care of the quadruped kids and the good woman now she is living on "Easy Street."

SUICIDE RUSE FAILS.

VANCOUVER, Jan. 26.—Not at all impressed by a dolorous note found on the bedroom of Bert Lee Keene, clerk, the young man's employers have instituted search for him in Seattle and want him returned to face an alleged shortage. A letter left behind said he was weary of life and could not face the world in disgrace, so intended to cast himself in the cold waters and find peace and forgiveness. Investigation, however, showed the young man was seen leaving town on a train, and was traced as far as Blaine. His employers are willing to overlook a shortage of some $90 if their fugitive employee will only return his records.

NEW SMOKESTACKS EXPECTED.

SOUTH VANCOUVER, Jan. 26.—After several years of rule under a provincial commissioner, following the failure of the former municipality of this place, the new board of city councillors, headed by Reeve McClintock, are now turning their attention to securing a couple of new smokestacks and a couple of new industries for the municipality. Already inquiries are reaching the place from prospective industrial plants. The only councillor who made no campaign promises is Councillor E. A. McMasters. The matter of needed borrowing of money is expected to arise shortly, and Mr. Masters stands in the unique position of being apparently the only one of the board who will not have to do a lot of explaining for a change of heart.

FAIL TO AID PAROLE OF G. HUGHES.

VANCOUVER, Jan. 26.—Although an eloquent appeal has been issued by friends of Griffiths Hughes, now serving five years for embezzling funds from the Spencer estate, Victoria, his co-religionists, it is reported, have declined to interest themselves in his proposed parole, although it has been pointed out that he is in declining health and has made restitution to the best of his power. When about to end his life in prison after the exposure, Hughes became interested in a widely-known creed, and acquired mental calm and philosophy that saved his life. This point has been presented to leaders of the creed, with a showing of work in the interests of the faith among his fellow-prisoners. The leading organ of the creed, published in an eastern city of the States, has also been approached, but nothing has been done. The friends of Hughes now fear they can count upon no aid from that source. However, hope is not extinct, and friends of the captive are making an effort along different lines.

HERMIT, OBJECT OF PITY, HAS PLENTY OF MONEY

SOUTH VANCOUVER, Jan. 26.—For years Adam Pike was an object of pity and kindly neighbors used to take over delicacies to the lonely old man who seemingly had no friends or money. He eked out a miserable livelihood, when he could get out, selling vegetables and eggs. This week, however, he was stricken with illness and announcement of his plight, by a charitable organization, brought two daughters on the scene. One is the wife of a merchant in Victoria. The young women declare there was no reason in the world for their parent to live in parsimonious want, as he has money in two Vancouver banks and a balance in a Victoria bank. They thought he was up in the mountains on one of his prospecting trips.

SHOP-LIFTING INCREASES.

VANCOUVER, Jan. 26.—Investigation of unusual shop-lifting activities this season reveals love of finery, with shortage of money by parents of young girls. Several who were detected and released with a caution, confessed they wanted to make a "good showing like other girls" but their fathers could not spare the money in hard times. Two young High School girls were caught, red-handed, carrying away laces and linklets from a leading department store this week. No arrests were made. In one store, an elderly woman with her little grandchild, said she was reduced by want to theft. A charitable association is aiding her. One complaint concerned a young woman of good family living in the west end. Her friends say she suffers from kleptomania and occasionally has to be placed under restraint.

DOPE EXPOSE REVEALS SHOCKING CONDITIONS.

VANCOUVER, Jan. 26.—Shocking revelations are bared in an exposure of depot conditions thruout the province, by the Vancouver Daily World this week. Orientals, white outcasts and panders to the social evil are mixed up in a menace that has apparently exceeded all former gravity. Investigation shows that girls from good families have acquired the habit in a spirit of "dare," while even school girls are now victims. A beautiful and accomplished woman who was a governess at an exclusive girls' school, disappeared several weeks ago. She was found living with a drug outcast in Chinatown. A young woman, the daughter of a professional man, was about to be married, but she vanished. In the probe she has been found in the dope colony with other girls for whom search has been made.

VANCOUVER, Jan. 26.—Maybe it is the cold or something, but the radical element of the waterfront and Cordova street here are thinning out, and few of their number now hold public meetings explaining how to establish Utopian happiness. Their meeting saloons are deserted and their crowds are fading.

VANCOUVER, Jan. 26.—Charging that a local cafe man inserted a fake pearl in an oyster for publicity purposes, and claiming that he broke one of his front teeth on the stone, David Evans, miner, or Nanaimo, has started suit against Tony Puel, asking the sum of $250. A dentist's affidavit figures in the claim. Evans brought witnesses to show that Puel had boasted he would get a big oyster for him, to the effect that he would get oysters, and thus attract more trade. The cafe man denies the report.

LITANY FOR 1922

From the persons who have made good resolutions and wish to tell us about them:

And from others who have chronic ailments and would fain describe them:

And from child prodigies who can do anything from reciting Omar to playing the Kreutzer Sonata on the violin at the request of their fond parents:

And from bores who relate interminable stories of mid-Victorian days, with gusto:

And from pessimists who would scare all and sundry into fits by stories of impending ruin:

And from motor fiends whose conversation is limited to control and ignition, and mufflers and exhausts and high-and-low.

And from men who smoke foul pipes and clean them on their garments:

And from tramway conductors who slam the doors close just as passengers would climb aboard:

And from salespeople who say, "yes, lady," and "what else" and are extremely patronizing:

And from men who want to shovel snow when the dust is flying and to clean outside window panes on zero days:

And from men who have suffered amputation of limbs as a result of accidents that have occurred to them in industrial plants or because they were soused, and wish to pass themselves off as returned soldiers:

And from insurance and book canvassers who wish to sell something that most people are already loaded up with:

And from fair females who wish to sell tickets for bazaars and would relieve the purchasers of all their cash at such functions:

And from folk who attend concerts or dramatic performances apparently for the sake of shooting off their mouths for the duration of the proceedings:

And from persons who ask impertinent or dampfool questions, either personal, domestic, business or general:

And from traffic cops whose ambition it seems to be to offer up to the motor-molech anything from an infant to a centenarian:

And from fiction writers who would have us believe that millionaires sons always marry shop girls, and that blondes are, by nature, more virtuous than brunettes:

And from persons who use perfume so lavishly that they may be located half a block away by the olfactory sense:

And from all manner of false prophets who, by their croakings would lead us into the spiritual clough of Despond:

And from dogmatic persons who insist upon proving by statistics facts that are of interest to none but themselves:

And from husbands who tyrannize over their wives in public places, likewise wives who lead their husbands on leash when abroad:

And from persons who stand in shop-windows and delude us into believing they are wax figures until they return our stares with frontal grimaces:

And from box office people who never have anything nearer than row X Y or Z at ten in the morning:

And from folk who put a ten-dollar bill on the church collection plate and "dock" the office hand or half-starve the housemaid to make it up:

And from all liars and cheats and hypocrites and shams and quacks and crooks and grafters and schemers and borrowers and beggars and gossipers and busy-bodies and pests and taggers and all kinds of nuisances of all classes, colors and creeds, in the body or out of the body, friends, foes or just ordinary cusses, suspect or otherwise, known or unknown—good Lord, deliver us!

The

A lot of people are beginning to realize, is a newspaper that would do credit to a district having a far bigger population of enthusiastic people than the one which it covers. Of the very large number of weekly newspapers now published in the West it is doubtful that many, if any, publish the same amount of interesting and up-to-date reading matter as is found in these columns.

While it is almost impossible to obtain all the news of this large district, we are certain that we, through our large circle of excellent correspondents, obtain a very large proportion of it.

Our subscription price is only per year and new subscribers are constantly being put on the list. In fact nearly all our entire issue is taken up with our list and consequently many people, who wish to buy a paper, are disappointed when we tell them that we are "sold out".

Therefore if your name is not on our list make up your mind to subscribe to the paper that you are most interested and that publishes the most news of the district in which you live.

NOT A CANDIDATE.

Mr. P. N. Tester called at The Review office recently and informed us that the rumor had been circulated that he is going to Rome to occupy a very dignified position. He wishes it thoroughly understood that the only condition which would influence him to change his mind would be that the Vatican would be removed from Rome to Sidney. He is at a loss to understand how the rumor started and is very pleased (with all due modesty) that he is recognized as being the only possible man in Sidney with the requisite mental and moral equipment that goes with the position.

WHY EXAGGERATE?

The other day, a prominent apple-grower of the Salmon Arm country gave out an interview in which he declared exaggerated reports of the profits in stone-fruit producing. It seems about time something of the sort happened. One daily appeared lately with the quite serious statement, purporting to come from an Okanagan orchardist, telling of about 5,000 trees and about $15,000 profit from less than ten acres of apple trees. Not long ago, a syndicate story went out from an alleged apple grower who claimed to have made $22,000 in one season's clear profits from 16 acres, after only three years' work. Such reports as these are bound to do harm. They can do no good. Any kind of misleading, falsehood is harmful. There is plenty of good news from our great apple-growing districts without trying to pad reports for the sake of effect.

A TRIBUTE TO THE WEEKLIES

In an embrace and well studied review of the interior province this week, the Province pays a tribute to the helpful weekly editor and the part he plays in the progress of British Columbia. It is good news to hear that someone appreciates the rural editor and his mission. Without undue optimism, but taking a square look at conditions all over British Columbia, the Vancouver Province relates the ups and downs of the past year, and takes a bright glance at happier days ahead along nearly every line of industrial effort. "The editor of our weeklies dips his pen in sunshine," says this review, "and refuses to see the gloomy shadow of things."

MAIL ORDER BUZZARDS.

In applying for information relating to press clipping service furnished by the Pacific Press Bureau of Vancouver, which furnishes news service for this paper, a large mail order concern of the middle west of the United States says: "We would like to receive information regarding country papers of British Columbia that do the least advertising, and data regarding towns most likely to prove profitable for our mail order business, as we intend opening a wide campaign for new customers. We can sell cheaper than the country store and give better service. We are out for more business."

And there you have it—the mail order buzzard that seeks to compete with the local merchant and grab local money for commodities that can be purchased at home. Of course the distant mail order house is bluffing when it offers "better values than the small town store," but there is a moral in it, too. The very fact that these mail order people want information on towns that are not interested in advertising in the home paper, shows, quite clearly, they have no hope of competing with local merchants that carry a regular message in the home paper. Two lessons are conveyed in this: One is to trade at home and keep the money from getting away, and the other is the necessity for advertising by the local merchant, if he wants to gain and retain home support.

LOOK OUT FOR "EASY MONEY" SHARKS.

Several "easy money" specialists in our larger cities are busy explaining, to the courts, all about their system of "investments." Several others are in flight. Some are scattering to the smaller towns, and one or two may be in our midst here shortly. Look out for them! Do not part with a cent unless you are convinced the money will be safe and sound in some solid undertaking. Or, better still, don't invest at all, unless it is in some local enterprise that you can constantly watch. There are many fine opportunities at home, without sending your spare money somewhere else. And the bank is a good, safe place, unless you know of something better. It is estimated that quite $1,000,000 of British Columbia money left for the United States within the past year. It went to dubious mining and other schemes in obscure parts. Some of it was "invested" by returned veterans from their pitiful little pension money. The warning is sound—look out for "easy money" sharks!

THE GENTLE JAP.

And here is the gentle, guileless Jap on the job again! Classified "ad" in Vancouver daily says: "Please, I like job as schoolboy in nice house; have age of 22 and like genteel work, not too menial. Apply Hamura, box 211."

Imagine an Oriental of 22 attending school with tender young children, boys and girls, of 12 to 14 years! Returned men on the breadline, and homes of affluence preferring to employ Japanese school boys? Reports, verified by the League, show hundreds of Oriental filling soft places in B. C. mansions.

MANY THANKS!

We rise to take our editorial hat off to our good friend, The Vancouver Daily Province, which had a number of nice things to say about the interior weeklies in a special review this week. The article, compiled with evident care by a writer modestly signing himself "J. L." covered conditions all over the province from facts gathered here and there and everywhere where a paper is published. The Vancouver daily, it appears, is making a regular monthly feature of a provincial review. It proves a sort of pandemonium of the provincial press and mirrors things as seen by the country editor. A tribute is paid to "Ye Editor" thruout, and the hard-worked rural scribe comes in for an encouraging pat on the back for "constructive work as a true community worker and public utility." This district came in for its full share of the review. It may be news to most readers to know there are more than half a hundred publications in this province, outside the dailies in the larger cities. The review shows that, if things have not been altogether brisk in recent months, the outlook is regarded with hopeful philosophy, and brighter days are dawning upon every nook and corner of British Columbia.

THE DAMNABLE DOPE TRAFFIC.

Although this district, perhaps, hardly suffers directly from the drug menace, we can offer the fullest sympathy with the larger cities that are afflicted with the most damnable evil that ever invaded a community. And we must express approbation of the able mission undertaken by the Vancouver Daily World in its efforts to efface this curse. The World has launched forth upon a movement that aims at a complete doing away of the drug traffic in our larger cities, and the revelations bare shocking conditions. Every incoming vessel from the Orient, we are told, carries drugs. The evil permeates every social scale of the cities of this province, it is reported. It is a sorry tale, but is one that cannot be rushed up. Maudlin sentiment cannot hide evils like this. It is a problem that cannot be handled with whispered deprecation or velvet gloves.

The drug dealer is the most fetid being that ever had the effrontery to live outside of Hades. He is infinitely inferior to the darkest demon that prowls in his home flames. He is an effigy, a monster, a creature that can have no thought but hellish hatred for his fellows. Prison rigors, the lash, anything to halt his infernal traffic in human souls should be meted out to him by outraged society. It may be said that we, of this town, are free from the drug evil, but who knows? Are we sure there is no drug sold here? Let us hope not. We can make sure by lending every support that will tend to stamp the peril out of all Western Canada and beyond.

WHY B. C. PRODUCTS SHOULD BE BOOSTED.

The "Made in B. C." department of the Vancouver Board of Trade, and a Vancouver news bureau that furnishes this paper with service each week, have approached the British Columbia manufacturers in Vancouver and Victoria with logical reasons why they should make their products widely known all over the province. A well organized advertising and publicity campaign in the interior papers is urged. The idea is splendid. Every logical reason proves it. The B. C. manufacturers can hardly expect to make their products known if they fail to tell people about them. They cannot expect to stamp out mail order trade if they omit to tell the people that they can offer something just a bit better, at fairer prices, and as a loyal offering from the British Columbia producing centre.

The other day, at a big civic gathering, representatives of B. C. manufacturing plants passed resolutions, deploring the spending of millions of dollars with Yankee mail order concerns for "commodities that could be well supplied by the factories of this province." Of course, millions of dollars are leaving the country for all kinds of things that are produced here, but until the producers of this province launch forth on a wide, provincial educational campaign, they will never stop all that money going away. No doubt the B. C. manufacturers can compete with any other concern in the world. The products are made in this province. There is saving of freight, tariff, taxes, every other incidental expense. But why not tell the good people of British Columbia all about it? The campaign in the cities only covers one-fifth of the task. There are hundreds of thousands of consumers all over the province who would be glad enough to buy everything made in B. C., if they were only explained.

By all means let us have a province-wide educational campaign for our B. C. products. Until this is done, millions of dollars will continue to go on their way in payment of things made in Yankland or beyond the seas. Let the interior papers help in this great "Made in B. C." campaign and let the B. C. manufacturers help themselves to the ever-useful, officious columns of the interior provincial press.

IDLE THOUGHTS

"Love, honor and behave" might fit nicely into the new nuptial ritual. Wonder if the B. C. Hindus are trying to interest Mr. De Valera in their unrest movement in these parts? Mail order house of Chicago publishes report to stockholders with these significant words: "It is found that every trade possibilities are opening in various parts of Canada, especially in rural parts where local advertising is perfunctory and spasmodic. Your committee anticipates encouraging return from this during the 1922 season." Quite so, and British Columbia is included in that very report!

The Late Pope Benedict XV

(An appreciation, by a resident of Sidney)

In the recent death of His Holiness, Pope Benedict XV the Catholic Church loses one of her most noble and brilliant sons. Unlike his predecessor, Pope Pius X, the late Holy Father combined the zeal and dignity of the churchman with the prestige and influence of the diplomat. His early training was given close attention by the late Cardinal Rampolla, who was Papal secretary of state to Pope Leo XIII, and himself a candidate for the Papal tiara in 1904. Austria acting, no doubt, at Germany's dictation, put in a veto against Rampolla's selection, and while the veto in itself carried no recognition by the Papacy, the fact that Germany and Austria were politically opposed to his candidature, caused his withdrawal from the field.

Pope Benedict was secretary to Cardinal Rampolla and was placed in charge of several diplomatic missions which turned out successfully. He was of the diplomatic school of Pope Leo XIII, the best known of whom are Cardinal Merry Del Val, an Anglo-Spaniard, who as Mgr. Merry Del Val, came to Canada in 1897 to adjust some differences between the English and French dignitaries of the church, the two Cardinal Vanutellis, Cardinal Rampolla and many others. Cardinal Merry Del Val was secretary of state to the late Pope Pius X.

Pope Benedict was most familiarly known throughout the world the author of the Pope's famous peace terms, which, though not accepted by either the Allies or the Germans, was regarded on both sides as a strong humanitarian effort, and it is a peculiar fact that President Wilson's fourteen points had embodied in it many of the Holy Father's peace suggestions. By his ability, his personal charm and outstanding love of humanity, His Holiness' place in the world will be difficult to fill.

ENJOYED CARD GAME.

(Review Correspondent.)
MOUNT NEWTON, Jan. 23.—Another keen game of military 500 was played last Wednesday night at the Mount Newton Social Club. Although the weather was rather cold and the roads slippery, a good number of card players assembled for the tournament. A big fire in the open grate threw warmth and cheerfulness among the happy players. The honors of the evening went to Fort No. 3, occupied by Mrs. Verdier, Mr. L. Hagan (as lady), and Messrs. Lacoursiere and Bourgeois, whilst the consolation was awarded to table No. 2. Mr. Buckle acted as floor manager, and the refreshments were served by Miss N. Hagan.

Pains About the Heart

ANY derangement of the heart's action is alarming. Frequently pains about the heart are caused by the formation of gas arising from indigestion.

Relief from this condition is obtained by the use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills.

Chronic indigestion results from sluggish liver action, constipation of the bowels and inactive kidneys.

Because Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills arouse these organs to activity they afford lasting relief for indigestion and overcome the many annoying symptoms.

REVIEW OF CALGARY MARKET

(From Market Examiner, Calgary)

CATTLE

CALGARY, Jan. 19.—Calgary had a good market on the choice beef this week, and all good stuff higher, with top steers $6@6.50; choice butchers, $4.75@5.75; good, $3.75@4.75; medium, $3.25@3.75; common, $2.50@3.25. Choice cows also higher, with tops $3.85@4.50; good butchers, $3@3.75; medium, $2.25@3; common, $1.75@2.25; canners, $1.50@1.75. A few choice heifers at $5, but market is $4@4.50 on choice; good, $2.50@3.75. Bulls, 25c higher at $2@2.75 on choice, and down to $1. Calves decidedly higher, with a few at $6.25, and most of the good ones $4@5; com-down to $3. Not much business this week in feeders and stockers, and lighter steers taken out at $4@4.50; feeder steers moved freely, $2.75@3.85. Stocker heifers, $2.25@3; stocker cows, $1.50@3.

HOGS

Calgary hog prices last week-end were $9.40. Selling started this week at $9.75, with quite a turnover on Wednesday. Thursday's arrivals sold at $10.

SHEEP

Calgary had lighter receipts this week; lambs not as high as previous report, $7@9; wethers, $5.50@7; ewes, $3.50@6.

GRAIN

Prices have been steadily improving, but heavy buying for the Russian government in the United States may have had something to do with advances. However, position of Canadian wheat of good grade which is required by importing nations seems gradually getting more favorable.

PRODUCE

Creamery butter markets demoralized owing to offerings of New Zealand butter, which will be sold at any price. Calgary creameries dropped cartons last Monday to 40c for No. 1, and 35c for No. 2; another 5c decline next week would not be surprising; creameries have considerable surplus which cannot be sold without loss. Fancy table dairy butter quoted 25c@27c; on grade, 15c@22c, will go down if creamery drops. Decline of 5c in cream may come next week. Table cream down to 42c at shipping point. Calgary milk delivery dropped to $2.

Chickens Stolen at Ganges Harbor

(Review Correspondent.)
GANGES, Jan. 24.—One night recently thieves robbed a chicken house, containing 60 or more young pullets, belonging to Mr. C. E. Baker, Booth Canal. Mr. Baker was aroused by the dog growling, but not realizing what it was, did not get up and investigate. Mr. Baker's property is situated on the waterfront, thus making it easy for a boat to land in the night unnoticed. There were eight Japanese fishing boats in the Booth Canal that night, and by the time Mr. Baker discovered his loss the boats had gone.

A large boom of logs left this week for Genoa Bay, for the lumber company there. The logs were cut on Salt Spring Island.

The launch Norah, from the logging camp, Montague Harbor, called at Ganges this week for supplies.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Mollinson are spending a few days at Oak Bay.

Last week Mr. E. F. Gibson, accompanied his son Stanley to Tzuehalem, near Duncan where Master Stanley is attending St. Ann's Academy for boys.

Last Wednesday the Creamery hill was covered with ice and very slippery and bad for traffic. Mr. J. Rogers' horse fell, breaking the shaft of the buggy, but he was able to gather up enough material to repair it so the buggy could be used the remainder of the way home.

"The Crofton," Capt. Hall, from Ladner, with a couple of hundred bales of hay for Mount Bros., called and unloaded at Ganges on Wednesday.

Miss Jane Mount is spending a week at Nanaimo with relatives.

Miss Lucy Jackson, who had been staying at "Barnsbury" with Mrs. N. Wilson, left for Vancouver on Monday.

Mrs. C. C. Castle has returned to Woodhill this week for a short time.

The dance of the Football Association will be held on Feb. 21 at the Mahon Hall, Ganges.

We are glad to say that Mr. Wm. Page has recovered and is sufficiently well to resume his work.

Mr. Walter Jameski returned from Vancouver with his bride to his ranch near Ganges.

The Guild of Sonchine held their regular meeting in the Guild room, at Ganges on Saturday afternoon.

Arrangements were made for the annual election of officers at the next regular meeting in February. After the meeting adjourned, tea was served by Mrs. G. J. Mount and Mrs. S. Gregory.

Rude Rural Rhymes

THE HOUSEHOLD BUDGET.

Before he travelled far in life Jim Henry Smith annexed a wife; then straightway loosened up his collar prepared to chase the nimble dollar. But all he earned his bride would spend; her wants and needs seemed without end. A nickel for a spool of thread and ten cents for a thimble and other things of higher price from Isenstein or Gimble. In shopping trips she found delight. She searched Jim's trousers every night. There came a daughter, then a son, and they were dear more ways than one. For though he loved them bona fide, it cost to feed and keep them tidy. Smith's credit smashed to smithereens; he had no jitneys in his jeans. Then wiser grown Jim Henry's spouse drew up a budget for her house, assigned her dollars, dimes and cents to balance income with expense, a lot for food a bit for frills, for movies, church, and pale pink pills. So now she knows just where she's at and Jim no more is busted flat. He walks the street in manly pride nor looks for duns from side to side. He pays each month the merchant's tallies and is not dodging thru the alleys.

—BOB ADAMS.

who has a store at Montague Harbor, is reported to be seriously ill. Mr. Grey is an old-timer in these parts, and is over 70 years of age. He has a grown-up family.

Mr. J. Egan, of Galiano, has returned from a business trip to Calgary and Banff. His little daughter is suffering from a very severe cold. We wish her a speedy recovery.

Mr. W. R. Lacey, of Calgary, is on a short visit to Salt Spring Island. He will be the guest of Mr. Warner, of St. Mary's Lake.

Mrs. Jane Mount returned to Ganges today after a week's visit in Nanaimo.

Mr. Frank Scott is improving slowly. All his friends wish him a quick recovery.

Mr. Wm. Sutherland, who has been confined to his bed for about ten days, is better, and we hope he will be around again soon.

Mount Newton Sunday School

(Review Correspondent.)
MOUNT NEWTON, Jan. 23.—It will no doubt interest readers of the Review to learn of the great success of the Mount Newton Sunday school. The attendance last Sunday was 55. This success, for the most part is due to the perseverance of the superintendent, Mr. Marshall. He devotes practically all his spare time to this work. He is organist, violinist, teacher, janitor, decorator, carpenter and performs a hundred other duties. Each Sunday his artistic talent supplies some picture in colored chalks to illustrate the lesson. Mr. Marshall is a great organizer, and each Sunday he arranges for some person from Victoria to address the school. To all of these Mr. and Mrs. Marshall extend their unlimited hospitality. Last year no less than 37 different persons from Victoria addressed the school, most of them well qualified for this task, and gaining the attention of the scholars.

The hall is well lighted and furnished with numerous Bible pictures. Last Sunday, Mr. Anderson, a private tutor and an author of merit, was highly appreciated for his original and instructive address.

A new acquisition is probably the youngest organist in B. C., a young lady of nine years, who plays with accuracy.

Miss Helen Stewart, of the Victoria Public Library, supplies the school with books, and a new bookcase has been provided by Mr. Lovell, the secretary, and Mr. Readings.

A great feature of the institution is that it is undenominational. Secenthroned where it should be "The greatest of these is Charity."

The secretary, Mr. Lovell, although having to travel from Wilkinson road, is practically never absent; he is our excellent violinist, and with Mr. Marshall and an organist, we are well supplied with instrumental music, whilst many of the women have excellent voices and harmony exists in all its phases.

Altogether, the institution is doing a good work and is worthy of all the support that can be given. There does not exist a more cheerful, well equipped and operated Sunday school, and we shall be glad if some of our friends in Sidney will attend. The school opens at 2.45 p.m.

There was a very successful masquerade at the hall on Saturday night. The band from Victoria was in as great form as ever, and though all did not appear in fancy dress, they had a gay time and kept it up until a late hour. ## FADS OF SOME FAMOUS PEOPLE

Bret Harte, when inspired, would hire a cab for the night, drive through the darkness without stopping until he felt calm enough to write, says Tit-Bits.

Bjornson kept his pockets full of seeds of trees, scattering handfuls broadcast in his daily walks. He even tried to persuade his associates to do the same.

Robert Browning could not sit still. The constant shuffling of his feet wore holes in the carpet.

Zola would never accept an invitation to dinner.

F. Marion Crawford carried his own stationery, pen and ink, and never wrote with any other. He wrote every word of every novel with the same penholder.

Count Tolstoy went hatless the year round. He was fond of French perfumes and kept his linen scented with sachet powder. There was always a flower on his desk as he wrote. Although very rich, he wore the cheapest of clothes.

Alexander Dumas, the younger, bought a painting every time he had a new book published.

Edgar Allan Poe slept with his cat. He was inordinately proud of his feet.

Disraeli wore corsets. The older he grew the greater became his desire to dress like a young man. He had a pen stuck behind each ear when writing.

Dickens was found of wearing flashy jewellery.

Oliver Wendell Holmes used to carry a horse chestnut in one pocket and a potato in another to ward off the rheumatism. He had a great fondness for trees, and always sat under one when he could.

Hawthorne always washed his hands before reading a letter from his wife. He delighted in pouring over old advertisements in the newspaper files.

Thackeray used to lift his hat whenever he passed the house in which he wrote "Vanity Fair."

Sardou imagined he had a perpetual cold.

Darwin had no respect for books as books, and would cut a big volume in two for convenience in handling, or he would tear out the leaves required for reference.

Washington Irving never mentioned the name of his fiancée after her death, and if anybody else did so he immediately left the room.

Victor Hugo spoke little; his remarks usually were made in the form of question.

Keats liked red pepper on his toast.

Longfellow enjoyed walking only at sunrise or sunset, and he said his sublimest moods came upon him at these times.

Robert Louis Stevenson's favorite recreation was playing the flute. In order, he said, to tune up his ideas.

Enjoyable Party at Saanichton

(Review Correspondent.)

SAANICHTON, Jan. 25.—The Saanich Athletic Association held their first card party in the Agricultural Hall on Saturday evening last, and must have been highly gratified by the result. Quite a large company assembled and the successful winners of the first prizes were Mrs. F. Verdier, Miss Hawkins, Mr. R. Crawford and Mr. L. Hagan, while the consolation went to Miss Tomlinson, Miss Freeland, Mr. T. Lidgate and Mr. R. Pope. The next one will be held on Saturday, Feb. 4, when it is expected there will be a large attendance to encourage the enterprise of the younger set.

The Mount Newton Social Club held their usual fortnightly card party on Wednesday evening last and spent a very jolly evening. The first prizes were won by Mr. L. Hagan, Mr. Bourgoise, Mr. Lacousiere and Mrs. Verdier, while Mrs. A. Pope, Mr. and Mrs. Osborne and Mr. Hage Elford won the consolation. We noticed quite a number of this club's members in the Agricultural Hall on Saturday evening when the S. A. A. held their 500 party. Might we suggest that all who can will attend the Mount Newton Social Club's card party on Feb. 1 and promote a friendly spirit towards each other, which is the only successful issue for all.

The basketball teams, Saanichton vs. St. Saviours, Victoria, will play a match in the Agricultural Hall, Saanichton, on Saturday, Jan. 28. A dance will follow.

Mr. L. Hagan visited Victoria on Friday evening to see the hockey match.

Here and There.

To ascertain the height of a tree or an object the Isthmus Indians have a curious method of measurement, which has often puzzled travellers. To find the height of a tree, for instance, a man proceeds from its base to a point where, on turning the back towards it and putting his head between the legs he can just see the top. At the spot where he is able to do this he makes a mark on the ground and the distance between the spot and the base of the tree will be equal to the height. Thinking this would be interesting information to impart, I approached a friend of mine of rather pronounced avordupois tincture and persuaded him to try the experiment. The result was disastrous and I fled backwards, my chief desire being to avoid the object. I have now come to the conclusion that the Isthmus Indian must be "of Pharaoh's lean cattle" to perform this feat.

Letter About Lighting Cost

Mr. W. H. Dawes, secretary of the Sidney Board of Trade, has received the following from Mr. Halls, of the B. C. Electric Co., in regard to the increase in lighting cost for many of the residents in Sidney:

"No doubt the dark and dirty weather experienced during the month of December and consequent liberal use of current for lighting purposes is the real reason for the complaints referred to. We are, however, always only too pleased to endeavor to locate, if possible, the causes for higher bills if such individual cases are at once brought to our attention. As you know, so many small appliances are now used in most homes, that it is not always an easy matter to determine just what has actually been used for lighting and what for miscellaneous uses.

"The accuracy of all electric meters is entirely under the jurisdiction of the Dominion government, who test and seal all meters prior to installation. This, therefore, forms protection for consumers and insures the accuracy of meters in service which is, of course, as important to the company as to the consumer."

Fulford Six, Spencers Two

The above is the result of the football match on local grounds yesterday afternoon when these teams met in a friendly exhibition of soccer. Neither team was at full strength, the island club being shy four of their regulars, while in the Spencer line-up were several faces that did not usually appear with them. The game, which was scheduled to start at 2.30, was an hour late in commencing owing to the fact that the Sidney athletic grounds where the game was to be played, was a veritable sea of mud and surface water, and the game was played in the field directly across Beacon avenue.

The first half was about even, though Fulford had the edge in the scoring column by 2 to 1, though they had more clean shots on goal than Spencers, but Shrimpton, as usual, pulled off some pretty stops and lived up to his well-earned reputation. He is an ex-member of the Sidney football team of 1913-14, when the locals went into a tie with Ganges for the McPhillips cup.

In the second half Spencers was only able to notch the net once, while Fulford put four hard shots into the net. Williams in goal for Fulford made at least two sensational stops though his rival lacked the neat finish of his rival at the other end of the field. The Fulford team proved to be a bunch of hard-workers, plugging away all the time and showed a nice knowledge of the passing game. Stewart, the captain, and E. Lumley were the pick of the forward line, Stewart getting two goals and Lumley one, while the other two were made by Billy Hamilton. Drummond and Gyves at half and Kelly Harris at full were the pick of the rest, though all played up to snuff. Besides Shrimpton, the captain, the classy men appeared to be Gordie Allen, who scored one goal, and his brother Jimmie and Casker, who got their first goal on the forward line, though the team as a whole gave a nice clean exhibition of soccer and the score does not tell the tale, as on a dry, fast ground the issue might have resulted differently, though this in no way detracts from Fulford's victory which was won fairly and squarely. P. N. Tester refereed, and the linesmen were Bert Johnson of Sidney and Hamilton, of Fulford.

Owing to short notice and little advertisement there were only a few Sidneyites present. One fact was clearly brought out, i.e., that it is unfortunate that we, in Sidney, can't produce enough young men with the necessary "pep" to take up soccer and uphold Sidney's fair name in this branch of sport.

The line-up was as follows:
Fulford—A. Williams, goal; Kelly Harris, L. Harris, backs; Gyves, G. Hamilton, Drummond, halves; W. Hamilton, D. Lumley, J. Stewart (captain), E. Lumley, Wagg, forwards.

Spencers—Shrimpton (captain) goal; Shannon, Lynn, backs; Jaynes, J. Allan, Robbins, halves; Caskie, Robertson, G. Allen, Bywater, Lupton, forwards.

THE AUDITORIUM

"The False Road," a Paramount picture, starring Enid Bennett, will be shown at the Auditorium next Saturday and Tuesday evenings, and Saturday matinee. Those who have seen Enid Bennett will be sure to see this latest production, as it is one of special merit.

"The False Road."

Conklin's hotel, in the Tenderloin district of New York city is the headquarters of a gang of crooks of both sexes. "Sapphire" Mike Wilson is their leader. Betty Palmer and "Frisco" Minnie, two young and pretty girls, are his most efficient aides. Roger Moran, another member of the gang, is about to be freed after serving a two-year term at Sing Sing. Betty Palmer is his sweetheart.

Betty meets Roger at the gate of Sing Sing with a new suit for him. She takes it for granted that he is to return to his old criminal life and says Mike Wilson has planned a royal welcome for him. But Roger has determined to go straight. He plans to abandon all his pals, except Betty. He keeps this silent from her.

But at the dinner which Wilson gives in his honor, Roger is called upon for a speech and tells the assembled gangsters that he is going to be an honest man. They are dumbfounded. Mike Wilson tries to get him to change his mind, but he will not listen. Betty pleads with him. In return, he asks her to marry him, and, when she refuses unless he sticks with the gang, he leaves her.

In the village of White Harbor, Mass., Roger secures employment as a hired man about the home of Joshua Starbuck. The latter is the village banker, and Mrs. Starbuck is very kind to Roger.

Mike Wilson gets a tip that the White Harbor bank can easily be looted for about $10,000. He sends Betty and Minnie to pull the job. They arrive in the town and pass themselves off as the Misses Fletcher demure misses from Philadelphia. Eventually they come across Roger. He is introduced to them under his assumed name, Hampton, and does not betray his recognition of them. Meeting Betty alone, Roger tries to get out of Betty her purpose in town and again urges her to reform and marry him. She refuses.

That night the two girls rob the bank and escape. When he hears the news the next morning, Roger at once journeys to New York, goes to Mike Wilson, and asks to be taken back into the gang. But to Betty he confesses that this is a stall to recover the money for which Joshua Starbuck is responsible. She has come round to his way of thinking by this time and agrees to try and get the money from Mike.

She starts to extract the $10,000 from Mike's private vault, but the gang leader catches her. In the tussle she picks his pocket of the ward, after he had apparently recovered it from her, and gives the money to Roger. They are married the next day.

The happy pair go to White Harbor then and deliver the stolen money to Joshua Starbuck, making a clean confession of their past lives. The Starbuck's welcome them.

In addition to the main feature, there will be a real good comedy and a Paramount magazine.

A very jolly meeting of the Girls' W. A. was held at the home of Miss Violet Wright last Monday evening. Owing to the absence of the president Miss R. Matthews presided. It was decided to hold a "hike" on Saturday, Jan. 28, at 2 p.m., and a good turn-out is requested, and members are requested not to forget the black jack. The annual meeting of the W. A. will be held on Jan. 30 at the Rectory, when officers for the year will be elected.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. James Bryant, Victoria, was the scene of a very pleasant birthday party given in honor of the coming of age of their eldest daughter, Elsie, on Friday evening, Jan. 13. The evening was very happily passed in games, music and dancing. An exquisite birthday cake, adorned with twenty-one candles, was the centre of much admiration. About sixty guests sat down to supper. Miss Bryant was the recipient of many useful and practical gifts.

"Pete" Hume blew into Sidney last Monday night from Grandview, Man., where he conducts a hardware business. He is the guest during his visit here of Mr. and Mrs. J. Johns, of Sidney. Pete has not been here since 1912, when he made quite a "hit" in an athletic sense, playing on both our lacrosse and baseball teams of that season. He is out on the coast for a two months' tour, which is coming to him as he has been plugging away for the past few years pretty steadily. His old pals are all glad to see him.

Have You Anything to 'Swop'

The chances are that you have some articles around the house which you would be willing to exchange for something else that would be of more use to you. We are going to start a "Swop Column" page seven, so look around the see if there isn't something you will swap for something else. Advertise it in the "Swop Column." It will not cost you very much, and you may be able to get something you have wished for. The "Swop Column" advertising will be at the same rate as the Classified advertisements, 2 cents per word for the first insertion and 1 cent per word for each subsequent insertion. No advertisement accepted for less than 25 cents.

MASS AT CATHOLIC CHURCH

Throughout the world where Catholic church services were held, the Mass was celebrated and prayers offered for the repose of the soul of the late Holy Father Benedict XV, who died on Saturday last. In St. Elizabeth's church, High Mass was sung by Rev. Fr. Weerts, of Saanich, the choir rendering a Mass that was dedicated to St. Anthony. During the offertory the choir sang "Nearer, My God, to Thee." Mrs. E. F. Lesage presided at the organ.
